

Extended Diaphragm

Brand: Reotemp

Short Description

The Extended Diaphragm Seal is ideal for highly viscous and dry powder applications. Its unique design eliminates dead space in piping. It is often used for flush mounting in thick-walled vessels and is available in standard and custom lengths.

Description

Wetted Materials: 316L SS, Hast C-276, Monel A400, Alloy 20, Zirconium, Titanium, and Others Flange Material Non-Wetted: 316L SS (Standard), and Others Process Temperature Limits: -150°F to 850°F Ambient Temperature Limits: Determined by the Pressure Instrument.