

Stand Alone Pressure Motive Pump

Brand: Watson McDaniel

Short Description

Pressure Motive Pumps (PMPs) are pressure driven pumps which return condensate back to the boiler room; normally using steam pressure as the motive force. PMPs can be supplied as individual pump units – which include a pump tank, the internal pump mechanism, and a set of inlet and outlet check valves – or as a packaged system which also includes the vented receiver mounted on a common base.