

Mercer Weather Caps

Brand: Mercer Valve Co.

Short Description

The weather cap is a PVC valve cover that is the best insurance against valve deterioration caused by all external elements. When installed properly this simple design can help protect your equipment from various kinds of intrusion into your valves and piping systems. Environmental degradation such as small animals, birds, insects and other critters calls for a product that can protect your equipment.

Description

Features: Non-toxic flex PVC with ultraviolet inhibitors. Easy to reattach after a pressure release. Can extend valve life and reduce overhaul expenses. Does not shrink or lose it's strong yellow color. Environmental resistance (weather, animals, insects, etc.).