

Fisher® D and DA Series

Brand: Southern Valve & Control

Short Description

Fisher D and DA single-port, high-pressure valves are widely used in oil and gas production industries. These valves are especially useful for either throttling or on/off control of liquids or gases which are gritty, sticky, or have a tendency to build-up on internal valve parts

Description

© NPS Sizes 1 and 2 « Angle Body DA Option « Carbon Steel « Threaded, Flanged, Socket Weld, or RTJ « ANSI Classes 150, 300, 600, 1500 « Equal Percentage Characteristic « Standard Class IV or Optional Class V Shutoff